The Debtors have prepared an estimated cash flow budget demonstrating the projected use of cash collateral and budgets during the term of the Stipulation and are authorized and permitted to use cash collateral as that term is defined in 11 U.S.C. § 363, but only in accordance with the budgets attached to the Cash Collateral Motion as Exhibit 1 and for the period of October 20, 2025 through November 15, 2025 (the “Budgets”).

- i. Pre-Petition Rents held by the VerStandig Law Firm, LLC Attorney Trust Account are considered to be cash collateral and subject to the constraints of the Budgets. Debtors waive and release any claim against the Bank that the Pre-Petition Rents remitted under this paragraph 5(i) or paragraph 10 below are property of the estate or that the Bank did not have a properly perfected lien in these specific monies, to the extent of any allowed claims of the Bank.

The Bank shall be granted perfected replacement liens and security interests, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 552, in Debtors' postpetition accounts receivables, general intangibles, cash, and rents of the same priority, dignity, and effect as the prepetition liens and security interests on the prepetition property of Debtors, to the extent of any diminution in cash collateral or prepetition accounts receivables, general intangibles, cash, and rents. The liens and security interests granted to the Bank herein shall not be primed by any other lien or encumbrance, whether by order of the Bankruptcy Court or the passage of time. The postpetition grant of the liens and security interests shall be supplemental of, and in addition to, the liens and security interests, if any, which the Bank possesses pursuant to its loan documents. The replacement liens and security interests granted by Debtors will be deemed properly perfected without further act or deed on the part of the Debtors or the Bank. Debtors agree to maintain the Generations Real Property and the Parkside Real Property in its present condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted, and unforeseen acts of god excepted. Debtors will furnish proof of such insurance within two (2) business days of written request by the Bank.

7. Inspection. Debtors agree to the Bank's inspection of the Generations Real Property and/or the Parkside Real Property upon 48-hours prior notice to the Debtors and its counsel with

The Bank has designated two natural persons who may carry out said inspections, and such inspections must be undertaken by one or both of those persons (though either may be substituted should they cease to be an agent of the Bank). The inspections shall occur not more often than once per calendar month absent court order. The Bank acknowledges that such inspections shall not include inspections of units subject to active leases in favor of third parties.

All rents will be deposited in said operating accounts and the Debtors will only use the DIP operating accounts for business operations. Additionally, the Debtors will cause CP Business Management Inc. to deposit all tenant security deposits into the respective savings accounts. Parkside and Generations shall each take steps to permit the Bank to have online viewing privileges for all four of these accounts, though such privileges shall not extend to permitting the Bank to undertake any banking activity (aside from the viewing of activities) in connection with any of the four accounts. 14. Remedies. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, the Bank shall give written notice to the Debtors' counsel, by email with a copy to follow by U.S. Mail to the Debtors (the "Default Notice"), clearly identifying in all caps and bold font as a "NOTICE OF DEFAULT", allowing the Debtors twenty calendar days from the date of the Default Notice to cure such claimed default. If the Debtors failure to timely cure the default, the Bank shall be entitled to file an affidavit of default and the Debtors agree the Bankruptcy Court shall enter an order terminating the
